I. POLICY PURPOSE:

- South Dakota ENA has the responsibility to provide communication/updates and/or information to its membership. That communication should contain information regarding meetings and professional activities of the state council.

Operational Procedure

- SD ENA may opt to communicate through electronic and/or print media. Twice a year, a newsletter may be published as the board deems appropriate.
- SD ENA will manage a website, and maintain current information to promote communication with its members.
- The annual cost of maintaining the web page will be paid by the SD State Council.
- SD ENA will manage a social media page regularly as a means to communicate with its members via social media. This will be for social and networking purposes only.
- Payment for postage and printing of a state newsletter or other necessary publication will be the responsibility of the South Dakota State Council.
